

Annex 6

BS RAC Conference

"Baltic Sea Fisheries: Lessons Learned and Future Perspectives"

Tentative programme

Grand Hotel Saltsjöbaden, Stockholm.

1st -2nd October 2009

Conference moderator: Steve Karnicki, Deputy Director, Sea Fisheries Institute (MIR), Gdynia, Poland

DAY 1

12:00 Lunch

Time	Subject
14.00	Opening by Reine J. Johansson, Chairman of the BS RAC
14.15	Opening address by Eskil Erlandsson, Minister for Agriculture, Sweden
14.35	Moderator Steve Karnicki: The aim and focus of this conference and a historical perspective to the Baltic Sea
14.55	Commissioner for DG Mare: The reform of the Common Fisheries Policy: what are the challenges for the Baltic Sea and for the BS RAC?
15.15	Kazimierz Plocke, Secretary of State Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development, Poland: Future perspectives for the Baltic Sea Fishery and the Environment
15.35	Eva Kjer Hansen, Minister for Food, Fisheries and Agriculture, Denmark: Future perspectives for the Baltic Sea Fishery and the Environment
15.55	Representative from the Russian Federation (to be confirmed): Russia and EU fishing together in the Baltic Sea
16.15	Coffee

Time	Subject
16.45	Poul Degnbol DG Mare (to be confirmed): The Baltic Sea fish stocks
17.05	Harm Koster, Community Fisheries Control Agency: The state of play of fisheries control in the Baltic Sea
17.25	Representative from European Economic and Social Committee (ECOSOC) (to be confirmed): A report on the reform of the CFP
17:45	Discussion and conclusions from day 1
18.15	Press Conference
20.00-22.00 Dinner

DAY 2

09:00 Coffee

Time	Subject
09:30	Moderator Steve Karnicki: Summary of DAY 1
09:45	Johan Rockström, (title) Stockholm Environmental Institute, (to be confirmed): The external threats to the Baltic Sea: how can we meet them?
10.05	Mogens Schou, Special Adviser to Minister Eva Kjer Hansen, Danish Ministry of Food, Agriculture and Fisheries: A case history: the ITQ system in the Danish fishery in the Baltic: experience and future prospects
10.25	Katarina Veem, Programme Director Baltic 2020: Best Practices Process: Global, European and Baltic perspective
10.45 Coffee
11.05	Markets representative (to be confirmed): The Baltic Sea fishing industry and markets view on responsible resource management
11.25	Mike Sissenwine Chair of Advisory Committee, ICES: Cross-boundary research cooperation around the Baltic Sea
11.45	Yvonne Walther (Swedish board of Fisheries) Practical examples of how we can improve research and cooperation around the Baltic Sea
12:05	Fanny Douvère UNESCO: Integrated management in the Baltic Sea
12:25	Conclusions from the conference
13:00	Closure of the conference
13.00 Lunch	